

SATURDAY EVENING POST

MAY 30 1964

LETTERS

Deception?

I think James Atwater's THE GREAT A-11 DECEPTION [May 2] was most ill-advised. Must the U.S., like a brash adolescent, always shout her supposed secrets from the housetops? Can we never keep our mouths shut?

MRS. NELL E. VON DER HELLEN
Eagle Point, Oreg.

• With reference to the 'interceptor that isn't an interceptor, I remember my experience years ago on a wintry day near Union Station in Washington, D.C. I had responded to a huckster's tempting call of "Hot ham sandwiches." When he handed mine over to me, I said, "Hey! This thing's practically frozen. What do you mean, 'hot ham sandwiches'?" "Oh, that's just the name of them, mister—that's just the name of them," was his reply.

LEON ROBERSON
Sanitarium, Calif.

• I say let's stop bugging the people who are trying to protect our way of life.

BENNETTE D. BELCHER
Roswell, N. Mex.

MORI/CDF